

The Program for Humanities in Medicine

would like to invite you to hear a lecture to be given by

Christine Montross, MD

Assistant Professor of Psychiatry & Human Behavior
Co-Director of the Medical Humanities & Bioethics
Brown University

The lecture is entitled: ABIDING WITH PATIENTS. Dr. Christine Montross, author of Falling Into the Fire: A Psychiatrist's Encounters with the Mind in Crisis, reads from her new book and discusses how diving deeply into her most challenging patient encounters led her to the ancient concept of abiding as a lost tenet of patient care. Dr. Montross speaks in defense of repugnance, and encourages physicians and doctors-in-training to acknowledge, rather than suppress, the discomfort which naturally arises in the practice of medicine.
