

PLEASE JOIN US FOR A CME DINNER

Wednesday, November 6, 2019

Advancing Men's Health: Updates in Urology

Artisan at Delamar

275 Old Post Road
Southport, CT

5:00PM Registration & Cocktails

6:00PM Program and Dinner

PRESENTERS

Peyronie's Disease: State of the Art Evaluation and Treatment Options

and

Hypogonadism: How to Treat in the Older Gentleman, Men of Reproductive Age, and Update on New Delivery Systems

Stanton Honig, MD

Professor of Clinical Urology; Director of Men's Health Program

Differentiating Clinically Significant vs Clinically Insignificant Prostate Cancer: Role of Biomarkers, MRI Fusion Biopsy and the Future

Preston Sprenkle, MD

Associate Professor of Urology

Michael Leapman, MD

Assistant Professor of Urology

PSA Screening: Has the Tide Turned Towards More Aggressive Screening?

David Hesse, MD

Assistant Professor of Clinical Urology

Thomas Martin, MD

Assistant Professor of Clinical Urology

Moderated by Michael Leapman, MD

Minimally Invasive BPH Treatments: How to Tailor the Treatment to the Patient

Daniel Kellner, MD

Assistant Professor of Clinical Urology

Male Urethral Stricture Disease: Should We Be Performing More Urethroplasties for Cure?

Jaime Cavallo, MD

Assistant Professor of Urology

For information and to register: (203) 785-2229 or medicine.yale.edu/urology/men

Yale Medicine
UROLOGY

YaleNewHavenHealth
Yale New Haven Hospital