Grand Rounds
February 25, 2020 | 12:00 p.m. | Smilow Auditorium, 55 Park Street

Jorge Salmerón, MD, DSc
Director, Academic Unit on Research and Epidemiology, Center for Research in Policy, Population and Health, National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM)

Cervical Cancer Control in Mexico: Progress and Challenges

Needs: There are challenges to preventing cervical cancer in Mexico that need to be addressed, as well as the progress that is being made in regards to HPV.

Objectives: Give an overview of the challenges currently being faced in the prevention of HPV and cervical cancer in Mexico and discuss the steps being taken to remedy these.