“In Search of Joy in Practice: Innovations in Patient Centered Care

Thursday, October 8, 2015- 8:30am – Fitkin Amphitheatre

NEEDS ASSESSMENT:

Physicians face many challenges in their daily work and over time, are at increased risk for professional burnout and loss of satisfaction in their work. It is important and necessary for physicians to learn new strategies to improve their work experiences, increase the effectiveness of their work and improve their sense of joy inspiration, and purpose.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to:

-  Discuss the rationale for creating STEPS Forward and the solutions it brings to practicing physicians.
-  Bring home at least one simple change to improve access and efficiency in your own practice.
-  Use teamwork and planning to ease the physician burden and provide better, more efficient patient care.
-  Become inspired about the possibility of reconnecting with the purpose and pleasure of practicing medicine.
