

A PRESENTATION OF THE ECHORN/YALE-TCC ENVIRONMENT & HEALTH WEBINAR SERIES

Environmental Action: Clean Water Solutions in the Caribbean

Presented by Dr. Steve Whittaker

Postdoctoral Associate in Global Health at the Jackson Institute for Global Affairs

Dr. Steve Whittaker graduated with a PhD in Public Health from Yale University in 2018. His dissertation focused on climate change adaptation, air quality, and health in the Eastern Caribbean. Dr. Whittaker balances his time as a researcher with teaching and mentoring as well as supporting independent studies of the environment and violence through collaborative work in St. Kitts and Nevis. At Yale, Dr. Whittaker endeavors to build on examinations of health outcomes as influenced by climate change management, communication and disaster impact response among susceptible groups in uniquely vulnerable tropical locales.
