Virtual Schwartz Rounds:

"Why did we choose this path"

"A personal reflection on why we choose the field we are in before, during and after the pandemic a year later"

Moderated by: Edward Schwartz, LCSW; Brian Lin, LCSW

Needs Assessment: In this interactive Schwartz Rounds, the aim is for you to reflect on why you chose this type of work and profession. It can be anything you feel is meaningful and enlightening to you, that you want to share with your fellow colleagues. Staff from several different disciplines will be encouraged to describe their reflection.

Learning Objectives: 1.To bring awareness of our choices and attitudes in our lives 2. To increase our ability to connect and engage in life.3.To remind us that meaning making is ongoing .

It is the policy of Yale School of Medicine, Continuing Medical Education, to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all its educational programs. All faculty participating as speakers in these programs are required to disclose any relevant financial relationship(s) they (or spouse or partner) have with a commercial interest that benefits the individual in any financial amount that has occurred within the past 12 months; and the opportunity to affect the content of CME about the products or services of the commercial interests. The Center for Continuing Medical Education will ensure that any conflicts of interest are resolved before the educational activity occurs.
