

WILBUR CROSS MEDAL TALK

The Wilbur Cross Medal is the highest honor the Graduate School accords its alumni.

Annette Thomas

'93 PhD — Biology

CEO, MacMillan Publishing, London, England

“Science and Education in the Digital Age”

Tuesday, October 15, 2013

4:00 PM, Luce Hall Auditorium, 34 Hillhouse Avenue — tea at 3:45 PM

OTHER TALKS BY WILBUR CROSS MEDALISTS ON OCTOBER 15

Fredric Jameson '59 PhD — French

“Proust and the Persistence of Narrative”

4:00 PM, Whitney Humanities Center Auditorium, 53 Wall Street

•

Alan M. Lambowitz '72 PhD — Molecular Biophysics and Biochemistry

“Biotechnological applications of mobile group II introns: targetrons and new methods for RNA-seq and analysis of non-coding RNAs”

2:00 PM, Brady Auditorium (B131 — BML), 310 Cedar Street — tea at 1:45 PM

•

Theodore J. Lowi '61 PhD — Political Science

“A Conversation with Ted Lowi”

12:00 NOON, ISPS — Room A001, 77 Prospect Street

