

Funding & Resources Gear Scoring Table

*All benchmarks refer to “Within the past year” unless otherwise specified.

Benchmark Reference	Benchmarks	Benchmark Scoring				Score
		0 Not done	1 Minimal progress	2 Partial progress	3 Major progress
FRG1	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities. <sup>1</sup>	There is no line in the national budget for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities but it does not include more than two items in Annex 2.	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities and it includes most line items in Annex 2.	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities and it includes all line items in Annex 2.
FRG2	The budget is adequate for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities.	There is no line in the national budget for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities.	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities or there is not a specific budget line but funding is provided for breastfeeding resources and it is adequate to cover some but not the great majority of	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities or there is not a specific budget line but funding is provided for breastfeeding resources and it is adequate to cover all of the activities	There is a national budget line(s) for breastfeeding protection, promotion and support activities and it is adequate to cover all activities in Annex 2 at the national level.

<sup>1</sup> Adapted from Fox et al. (2015)

			the activities in Annex 2 at the national level.	in Annex 2 at the national level.
FRG3	There is at least one fully funded government position to primarily work on breastfeeding protection, promotion and support at the national level.	There is no government funded position to primarily work (i.e. 75% of time) on breastfeeding protection, promotion and support.	There is at least one government funded position to work on breastfeeding protection, promotion and support but it is not fully funded and the focus is not primarily breastfeeding.	There is at least one government funded position to work on breastfeeding protection, promotion and support and it is fully funded or the focus is primarily breastfeeding.	There is at least one government funded position to work on breastfeeding protection, promotion and support and it is fully funded and the focus is primarily breastfeeding.
FRG4	There is a formal mechanism through which maternity entitlements are funded using public sector funds.	There is no formal mechanism through which maternity entitlements are funded using public sector funds.	There is a formal mechanism through which maternity entitlements are funded using public sector funds but the national coverage is minimal (i.e. less than 50% coverage nationally).	There is a formal mechanism through which maternity entitlements are funded using public sector funds with partial (i.e. 50%) national coverage.	There is a formal mechanism through which maternity entitlements are funded using public sector funds with full national coverage.	