

The Nuland Foundation presents “To Life...A Gospel Concert”

Saturday, November 18th, 2017 at 8pm, Battell Chapel, 400 College Street, New Haven

Join us for a celebration of life through song and through inspiration. The Heritage Chorale of New Haven and musicians, under the direction of Jonathan Berryman, will be an essential part of our program. Those of you who saw Long Wharf Theatre’s production of Langston Hughes’ Black Nativity will remember the voices of Erik Brown, Regina Edwards and Kenyon Adams. Praise and worship will begin the program at 8 PM and then the story will unfold. The story being how palliative medicine is an integral part of living well with serious disease once the diagnosis is made. Living well, not only for the patient but for the entire family. The evening will be hosted by Carroll E. Brown.

This program is free and open to the public.

This event is organized by The Sherwin B. Nuland Foundation for Palliative Care and sponsored by Yale New Haven Health, The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven, WYBC, The Jewish Federation of Greater New Haven and Yale University

To Life!
