ACCREDITATION:

The Yale School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

ObGyn attending physicians, house staff/fellows, medical students, nurses, PA's, community Ob/Gyn's, residents, midwives, nurses and researchers.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT:

Sexual difficulties of all types are under-diagnosed and under-treated. The gynecologist has opportunities and responsibilities to appreciate these disorders and address in evidence-based way.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this presentation, attendees will be able to:

1. Describe the basics of the classification of female sexual dysfunctions (DSM IV-TR, DSM 5), the incident, prevalence, and overall health burden of Hypoactive Sexual Desire Disorder (HSDD) among women of all ages;
2. Identify and diagnose HSDD in the context of its potential to cause distress, social withdrawal, and relationship conflict; and
3. Review the FDA approved, "off label," non-pharmacological, and investigational pharmacological management options for HSDD/FSD.
