Prostate and Urologic Cancers Program Smilow Cancer Hospital at Greenwich

Smilow Cancer Hospital offers a comprehensive, multidisciplinary clinic for patients with prostate and urologic cancers at Smilow Cancer Hospital at Greenwich. The program enables patients to meet with multiple, highly-skilled Yale Cancer Center experts including urologists, medical oncologists, radiation oncologists, advanced practice providers, and social workers. This team approach provides newly diagnosed patients with a carefully determined, personalized treatment plan focused on providing the most comprehensive, effective care possible. When surgery is needed, our urologists provide extensive expertise in nerve-sparing laparoscopic and robotic surgery, traditional open surgery, and novel targeted or "focal" treatments.

The Prostate and Urologic Cancers Program at Smilow Cancer Hospital at Greenwich provides care to patients diagnosed with cancers including, but not limited to, adrenal cancer, bladder cancer, kidney cancer, penile cancer, prostate cancer, and testicular cancer. In addition, our designation as a National Cancer Institute Comprehensive Cancer Center provides access to the most advanced clinical trials for our patients, giving them access to the newest, most advanced treatments.
