

ZEISS LSM 900 Workshop and Demonstration

Yale University

Join us for ZEISS Presentations and Demonstrations, aimed at educating scientists and students on how to achieve fast and gentle imaging with the latest generation of ZEISS Confocals - LSM 9 Series with Airyscan 2. Increase your Productivity with Better Data – Fast and Gentle Imaging with the New ZEISS LSM 9 Family with Airyscan 2.

During the sessions you will learn how to:

- Acquire better data faster with the new Multiplex mode for parallel pixel acquisition
- Increase your productivity through efficient ZEN software features
- Image gently with a light efficient beam path and Airyscan 2
