NEEDS ASSESSMENT

Hesse: Increase the awareness of risks and benefits of new, minimally invasive surgery to treat aggressive bladder cancer.

Resident: The goal of this conference is review unusual and teaching cases. The conference is designed to review basic as well as rare cases. Cases are analyzed and in a case review format and then there is a teaching session to review all important clinic aspects of the case with group discussion.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to:

Hesse:

1. Appreciate the evolution of robotic assisted radical cystectomy (RARC).
2. Appreciate the issues surrounding RARC, specifically survival, morbidity cost.
3. Appreciate the New Haven experience with RARC
4. Appreciate future development of RARC, and its adaptation by a new generation of urologists.

Resident:

- Improve the quality of patient care
- Review general urology concepts as well as rare/unusual cases
- Improve care techniques and patient management
