A Day in the Life Series (ADLS)

Moderated by: Tara Sanft, MD; Stacey Stein, MD

Panel Presenters: Tanisha Redic, Patient Transport Associate; Rashida Seaborn, Food & Nutrition Associate; Rosilyn Freeman, Business Associate

Needs Assessment: In this interactive casual session, the aim is to enlighten each other about our work, what it is that we do each day. Staff from several different disciplines will briefly describe a typical day and mention one or two highlights from their work, focusing on what is most satisfying in their job. This series begun in April 2018 as part of a project developed by the Humanities in Teaching course participants.

Learning Objectives: To describe the work environment of our colleagues; To explore characteristics of meaningful work; To identify how the work of our colleagues impacts our own work.
