

Yale SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Teaching and Learning Center

The Dr. Peggy Bia Seminar: Inspiration in Medical Practice September 22, 2014

5:00 pm – 6:30pm

The Cohen Auditorium, Child Study Center
230 South Frontage Road – E Floor

“Teaching in the Presence of the Patient: Tips for modeling humanism and inspiring the next generation”

Presenter: Dana Dunne, MD

Associate Professor of Medicine; Director, Internal Medicine Clerkship;
Associate Program Director Internal Medicine Residency Program

Dr. Dunne has spent the majority of her career focusing on the care of patients with sexually transmitted diseases and on the education of clinicians who also care for these patients. Dana has been instrumental in bringing humanism in teaching to the forefront of medical education through her curriculum development, research and teaching.

Peggy Bia, MD

In appreciation for her dedication to the Yale School of Medicine and for inspiring generations of students and faculty to become the best physicians they can be, YSM is proud to honor Dr. Peggy Bia by presenting this special event for medical educators.

RSVP no later than 9/15: tlc@yale.edu

Hors d'oeuvres and Beverages will be served.

YaleCME
CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION