Gloria Huang, MD, FACOG, Associate Professor of Obstetrics, Gynecology & Reproductive Sciences, joins the team at Smilow Cancer Hospital Care Center at Greenwich to care for patients with gynecological cancers. An internationally known expert in the treatment and prevention of ovarian, uterine, and cervical cancers, Dr. Huang brings her expertise in minimally invasive surgery to patients in lower Fairfield County, Connecticut, and Westchester County, New York.

Dr. Huang received her medical degree from Stanford University School of Medicine and completed a Gynecologic

Oncology Fellowship at Albert Einstein College of Medicine. She is also the principal investigator of a federally-funded cancer research laboratory and provides exceptional, individualized, comprehensive care to patients, bringing together multidisciplinary clinical teams to achieve the best outcomes. She is passionate about advancing the field of gynecologic oncology through innovative scientific research and hopes her discoveries will lead to better treatments for patients.
