

Online Certificate in Climate Change and Health

Yale School of Public Health offers an 18-week, online certificate. Courses are:

1. Introduction to Climate Change and Health
2. Climate Adaptation for Human Health
3. Communicating Climate Change and Health

Dates & Deadlines:

The program is offered twice annually, in February and September. Application deadlines and program start and end dates can be found online: cchcert.yale.edu

Flexible Learning + Immediate Impact

Address the mounting threat of climate change with strategies to increase your community's resilience

Diverse Cohort + Engaging Network

Designed for working professionals, engage with expert faculty and in peer-to-peer learning

This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™.

Learn more online:

cchcert.yale.edu

Yale SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Student Experience

Access weekly recorded lectures, slideshows, readings, assignments, and real-time sessions through an online portal designed for you and your peers to interact with faculty.

Program Cost

The Certificate is $2,000. Scholarships, financial aid, and tuition discounts are available.

Weekly Time Commitment:

Each week students can expect to spend between 5 - 7 hours working on the following course activities:

- Lecture
- Discussion boards & learning activities
- Reading two to three articles
- Live discussions with faculty and peers

Learn more online:

cchcert.yale.edu

Yale SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH