Course Director/Host: Lubna Pal, MBBS, FRCOG, MS, FACOG

ACCREDITATION:

The Yale School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

ObGyn attending physicians, house staff/fellows, medical students, nurses, PA's, community Ob/Gyn's, residents, midwives, nurses and researchers.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT:

Health care workers and laypersons alike often don't appreciate the myriad individual and societal benefits of ready access to outpatient treatment of opioid use disorder. In addition, Urine drug interpretation is technically challenging, and is often both underutilized and misinterpreted.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the end of this presentation, attendees will be able to:

1. Safely prescribe opioids when appropriate, using practical urine drug screen monitoring;
2. Know the landscape of opioid addiction and its treatment in Connecticut; and
3. Understand the impact of stigma on the acceptance of treatment.

DESIGNATION STATEMENT

The Yale School of Medicine designates this live activity for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should only claim the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
