

Welcome to StemConn, Connecticut's premier conference on stem cell and regenerative medicine research. Our conference will highlight cutting-edge research advancements, and will provide a forum for discussion among scientists, policy makers, and bioscience industry partners that will advance knowledge and foster new collaborations.

StemConn2015 marks the 10th year of the ground-breaking legislation that has propelled Connecticut to the national and international forefront of stem cell and regenerative medicine research. The StemConn2015 conference will feature world-renowned speakers; networking, exhibits and posters; trainee Meet-the-Speaker opportunities; and a special "Commercialization & Translation" session.

Come join us to celebrate the growing success of Connecticut's stem cell and regenerative medicine research!
