

SEICHE CENTER ANNUAL STUDENT RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM ON INCARCERATION AND HEALTH

AUGUST 27TH, 1-3 PM ET

Welcome & Introduction. Dr. Lisa Puglisi, Director of Education.

Understanding the relationship between sleep health and recent incarceration.
Amy Du, Wesleyan University.

It kind of makes you feel like you're an animal: A qualitative description of the correctional response to COVID-19.
Alex Halberstam, Yale College.

The Newgate Prison Experiment: Lessons from England's first vaccine clinical trial for the COVID era.
Caroline Beit, Yale College.

How an American prison lived through the 1918 influenza: Implications for future pandemics.
Charlotte Kim, Yale School of Medicine.

The history of correctional healthcare and the law in Texas prisons and jails since 1976.
Heather-Destiny Konan, Emory University.

Experiences of healthcare among people without housing in New Haven, CT.
Brandon Hudik, Yale School of Medicine.

REGISTER HERE.

