

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDENT RESEARCH

HISTORY

Since its inception in 1966, the Downs Fellowship has sponsored some 600 Yale students, allowing them to live, learn, work and do original research in low- and middle-income countries.

EXPERIENCE

Fellowship assistance allows students to embark on a scientific adventure that demands flexibility, self-sufficiency, patience and creativity in order to conduct vital research that addresses pressing global health needs.
