Virtual Schwartz Rounds:

"A Day in the Life-New Challenges"

Moderated by: Tara Sanft, MD.; Stacey Stein, MD.

Needs Assessment: In this interactive casual session, the aim is to enlighten each other about our work, what it is that we do each day. Staff from several different disciplines will briefly describe a typical day and mention one or two highlights from their work, focusing on what is most satisfying in their job. This series began in April 2018 as part of a project developed by the Humanities in Teaching course participants.

Learning Objectives: 1.To describe the work of our colleagues and how that has changed and been adapted over the last challenging year 2.To explore characteristics of meaningful work; 3. To identify how the work of our colleagues impacts our own work.

If interested in attending please email Dina Ardito at dina.ardito@yale.edu
