

WILBUR CROSS MEDAL TALK

The Wilbur Cross Medal is the highest honor the Graduate School accords its alumni.

Alan M. Lambowitz

'72 PhD – Molecular Biophysics and Biochemistry

Director, Institute for Cellular and Molecular Biology, University of Texas at Austin

“Biotechnological applications of mobile group II introns:
targetrons and new methods for RNA-seq and analysis of non-coding RNAs”

Tuesday, October 15, 2013

2:00 PM, Brady Auditorium (B131 – BML), 310 Cedar Street — tea at 1:45 PM

OTHER TALKS BY WILBUR CROSS MEDALISTS ON OCTOBER 15

Fredric Jameson '59 PhD – French

“Proust and the Persistence of Narrative”

4:00 PM, Whitney Humanities Center Auditorium, 53 Wall Street

•

Theodore J. Lowi '61 PhD – Political Science

“A Conversation with Ted Lowi”

12:00 NOON, ISPS – Room A001, 77 Prospect Street

•

Annette Thomas '93 PhD – Biology

“Science and Education in the Digital Age”

4:00 PM, Luce Hall Auditorium, 34 Hillhouse Avenue – tea at 3:45 PM

