

2019 YALE NEUROLOGY RESEARCH RESOURCES SYMPOSIUM

Friday, October 25, from 1-2:30pm

Harkness Auditorium, 333 Cedar Street, New Haven

Learn about available Neurology research resources, including training opportunities, infrastructure for conducting studies, and internal fellowships and grants. The symposium will feature the following faculty and resources:

Jaime Grutzendler

Yale Investigative Neurology Training Program/Clinical Neuroscientist Training Program (R25)

Bhaskar Roy

NeuroNEXT fellowship

Dave Hwang

Early career awards (ABF Practice Research Training Fellowship & NCS Research Training Fellowship)

Lauren Sansing

Yale Investigative Neurology Training Program/Clinical Neuroscientist Training Program (R25)

Elan Louis

Clinical And Epidemiology Research In Neurology Training Program (T32) and Center for Neuroepidemiology and Clinical Neurological Research (CNE²)

Kevin Sheth

StrokeNet and NeuroNEXT

Richard Nowak

NeuroNEXT

Serena Spudich

NeuroNEXT, Clinical and Epidemiology Research in Neurology Training Program (T32), and Center for Neuroepidemiology and Clinical Neurological Research (CNE²)

Nils Petersen

StrokeNet fellowship

Stephen Strittmatter

Yale Alzheimer's Disease Research Center and pilot grant program

Refreshments will be served!

Contact Danielle.Paquette@yale.edu with questions