Enabling research through innovative uses of our Epic EHR, mobile technologies and digital health

Please join us as YCCI hosts the next session in our Faculty Dinner Series. This session will showcase the innovative research made possible by our Yale JDAT and Epic teams. The presentations will feature discussions on the new research functionality available with our Epic 2018 upgrade; demos of slicer dicer; and advances in our use of the Helix data warehouse, mobile technologies, and digital health platforms.

Presenters:

- Allen Hsiao, MD, Chief Medical Information Officer, Yale School of Medicine & Yale New Haven Health and Associate Professor of Pediatrics (Emergency Medicine) and of Emergency Medicine
- Prem Thomas, MD, Medical Director of Data Analytics and Medical Information Officer, Yale New Haven Health
- Wade Schulz, MD, PhD, Senior Solution Architect Helix Data Sciences, Yale New Haven Health and Assistant Professor, Director of Informatics, Laboratory Medicine
- Yauheni Solad, MD, Medical Director, Digital Health, Yale New Haven Health
