

Best Practices in Caring for Patients with Obesity:

A Meeting of the Minds

Tuesday November 27, 6-7:30 PM

Park Street Auditorium

55 Park Street, Room 201

Join our outstanding panelists for a discussion on caring for patients with obesity, including tips on topics ranging from counseling on nutrition/exercise habits to treating patients with respect and dignity!

Food will be provided.

- Christopher Barrett, MS RD – Dietitian at YNHH Center for Nutrition and Wellness and Metabolic Health and Weight Loss Clinic, with interest in Sports Nutrition
- Phillip Bilderback, MD – Bariatric surgeon with interest in surgical management of patients with obesity
- Marydale DeBor, JD – Food policy consultant and founder of Fresh Advantage, an organization that integrates healthy nutrition into institutions' food services
- David Katz, MD MPH – Preventative medicine physician and expert in nutrition, weight management, and prevention of chronic disease
- Janet Lydecker, PhD – Mental health clinician with interest in behavioral interventions for obesity and impact of weight stigma
- Charles O'Connell – Founder and CEO of Fitscript, a digital health company that provides exercise solutions for people with diabetes

Brought to you by the Yale Resident Fellow Senate Advocacy Council.
Questions? Abhirami.raveendran@yale.edu or Rebecca.vitale@yale.edu

Yale
NewHaven
Health