

Social Work Fellows Class of 2024

Christian Edwards, MSW

Christian Edwards, received his master's in social work at the University of Michigan with a concentration in Interpersonal Practice in Integrated Health, Mental Health, & Substance Abuse. Christian also received his bachelors in psychology from Morehouse College in Atlanta, GA. During his graduate training, he completed an internship at Southfield Mental Health Associates, where he primarily worked with black male youth and adolescents. In his free time, Christian enjoys cooking meals while spending time with family and friends.

Stephanie Salazar, MSW,

My name is Stephanie, but you can call me Steph. I'm currently attending Columbia School of Social Work. My ethnic background is Mexican and I was born and raised in Houston, TX. I'm interested in working with children who struggle with processing abuse and grief/loss. I'm fascinated by the socialization of children and the development of their social/emotional understanding. I love traveling, adrenaline, and trying new foods! I'm intentional about journaling every day either through writing, photos, or short videos.
