Virtual Talk

Striving Towards Equity in Academia

Beverley J. Sheares, MD, MS

Health Equity Thread Leader

Yale University School of Medicine

Associate Professor Pediatrics in the Pulmonary, Allergy/Immunology, and Sleep Medicine Section

Yale University School of Medicine

Dr. Sheares serves as the Director for the Pediatric Pulmonary Fellowship program and develops health equity content for the medical school curriculum, partners with faculty to enhance diversity, equity, and inclusive content in existing courses, and creates opportunities for faculty and student development in health equity. Her research interests are focused on improving health outcomes for children with asthma and behavioral sleep problems and in closing the health outcomes disparities gap in children with respiratory problems.
