Black History Month
with
Ayana Elliott, DNP, APRN, FNP-C

Will the Doctor See Me Now?
Being Black Transgender in the American Health Care System.

Dr. Ayana Elliott is a family nurse practitioner with clinical expertise in HIV and transgender health as well as family medicine and medical oncology. She is a member of the American Academy of HIV Medicine and currently serves as Director of Clinical Operations at the City of Hope Comprehensive Cancer Center in South Pasadena, California.

Thursday February 28 at 12:15pm
Yale School of Nursing - Rm#11701/11703

Lunch will be provided.
Please RSVP to maryann.fuentesmarshak@yale.edu
No later than Feb 22nd.