UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN - MADISON

“'I was obligated to accept': Measurement of coercion and autonomy in global family planning programs”

Biography:

Dr. Leigh Senderowicz is a public health researcher and social demographer focusing on global sexual and reproductive health and justice. Her mixed methods research focuses on reproductive autonomy, exploring the ways that new approaches to measurement and evaluation can promote person-centered care, health equity, and reproductive freedom. Dr. Senderowicz is currently an NICHD Health Disparities Research Scholar at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
