“Hypertensive Emergencies in Pregnancy in Low Resource Settings”

There is no corporate support for this activity
Course Director/Host: Lubna Pal, MBBS, FRCOG, MS, FACOG

Thursday, September 13, 2018, 4:00PM-5:00PM
Brady Auditorium, 310 Cedar St

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

At the conclusion of this talk, the attendees will be able to:

1. Discuss the clinical presentation and management of hypertensive disorders in pregnancy at a busy tertiary Hospital in Uganda
2. Discuss the immediate and long-term complications of pre-eclampsia in low resource settings
3. Outline potential areas for research and clinical collaboration

NEEDS ASSESSMENT:

Hypertensive disorders in pregnancy are a common pregnancy complication globally. Despite a lot of advances in their treatment modalities, management of these disorders is a challenge in resource settings and they remain a leading cause of maternal and neonatal mortality, and severe morbidity. This presentation highlights the experiences of managing these disorders in a busy tertiary African Hospital and potential areas of clinical and research collaboration. The ultimate goal is to create awareness about the burden of the hypertensive disorders in low resource settings with the intention of finding innovative ways of reducing their contribution to maternal and neonatal mortality and severe morbidity.

TARGET AUDIENCE

ObGyn attending physicians, house staff/fellows, medical students, nurses, PA's, community Ob/Gyn's, residents, midwives, nurses and researchers.
