Thursday, October 24, 2013 - 4:00 p.m.

Brady Auditorium, Room B131
Lauder Hall

ACCREDITATION:

The Yale School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

1. Identify gynecologic problems experienced by pediatric and adolescent girls.
2. Determine the appropriate diagnostic tests for pediatric and adolescent gynecologic patients.
3. Counsel patients and their families regarding the long term prognosis of pediatric and adolescent gynecologic disorders.
4. Understand the findings, reporting requirements, implications of sexual abuse in this patient population.

NEEDS ASSESSMENT:

Pediatric and Adolescent Gynecology (PAG) is often inadequately taught during OB/GYN residency, with many OB/GYN residents scoring poorly on tests of PAG knowledge and reporting lower comfort with this population and its associated medical issues and counseling needs. (1-3)see pg 2

CME CREDIT:

The Yale School of Medicine designates this educational activity for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This Grand Round will fulfill our annual requirement for sexual abuse training.

FACULTY DISCLOSURES:

It is the policy of Yale School of Medicine, Continuing Medical Education, to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all its educational programs. All faculty participating as speakers in these programs are required to disclose any relevant financial relationship(s) they (or spouse or partner) have with a commercial interest that benefits the individual in any financial amount that has occurred within the past 12 months; and the opportunity to affect the content of CME about the products or services of the commercial interests. The Center for Continuing Medical Education will ensure that any conflicts of interest are resolved before the educational activity occurs.
