

LEARNING OBJECTIVES: EL TEACHING AND LEARNING CENTER MEDICAL EDUCATION ELECTIVE

Overarching Goals	Elective objectives: By the end of the rotation, students will be expected to:	Where/how taught (location or learning activity)	Taught by	How student's achievement of objective is assessed (assessment method)	How feedback is given (feedback method)
2, 3, 4, 7	Student will develop specific skills that will allow students to teach more effectively in various clinical and classroom scenarios (work rounds, grand rounds, physical diagnosis rounds, operating room, morning report, noon conference) that they will experience during their residency.	Teaching and Learning Center, Building A, 367 Cedar Street, ES Harkness Hall, 2nd Floor	Elective Director(s)	Assessment will be built into the elective through self-reflection and verbal and written feedback from peers and faculty. These will include homework assignments or feedback in group exercises and teaching activities. Students will also be asked to self-assess their previous knowledge of and exposure to each of the topics described in the course. All students will complete a set of objective structured teaching encounters (OSTEs) at the end of the course.	Oral and Written
2, 3, 4	Student will observe and learn from role models in the field of medical education and describe the characteristics of effective teachers.	Teaching and Learning Center, Building A, 367 Cedar Street, ES Harkness Hall, 2nd Floor	Elective Director(s)		Oral and Written
2, 3, 4, 7	Student will describe the current state of medical education, with a focus on educational theory and evidence derived from the medical education literature.	Teaching and Learning Center, Building A, 367 Cedar Street, ES Harkness Hall, 2nd Floor	Elective Director(s)		Oral and Written
2, 3, 4, 7	Student explore how students can integrate their roles as clinician and educator regardless of career goals.	Teaching and Learning Center, Building A, 367 Cedar Street, ES Harkness Hall, 2nd Floor	Elective Director(s)		Oral and Written
2, 3, 4, 7	Student will develop the attitudes that place a strong emphasis on the value medical education.	Teaching and Learning Center, Building A, 367 Cedar Street, ES Harkness Hall, 2nd Floor	Elective Director(s)		Oral and Written