

Yale SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Program for Biomedical Ethics and
Yale Pediatric Ethics Program present

A Viewing & Discussion of the Film: Three Identical Strangers

WALTER S. GILLIAM, PhD

*Elizabeth Mears & House Jameson Professor of Child Psychiatry and Psychology, Yale Child Study Center
Director, The Edward Zigler Center in Child Development and Social Policy, Yale University*

STEPHEN LATHAM, JD, PhD

*Director, Interdisciplinary Center for Bioethics
Senior Research Scientist, Institution for Social and Policy Studies Lecturer, Yale School of Law*

ANDRÉS MARTIN, MD, MPH

*Riva Ariella Ritvo Professor, Child Study Center
Director, Standardized Patient Program, Teaching and Learning Center, Yale School of Medicine
Medical Director, Children's Psychiatric Inpatient Service, Yale-New Haven Children's Hospital*

Identical triplets are separated at six months of age and adopted by three very different families. Each of them, and their adoptive families, are not informed about the other two and discover each other by chance many years later. Their reunion becomes a global sensation that eventually unearths hidden secrets.

What ethical questions and concerns remain today for decisions of the past?

Monday, March 2, 2020

4:00 PM Film Viewing: Three Identical Strangers

5:45 PM Buffet Dinner

6:15-7:30 PM Discussion

Cohen Auditorium, Yale Child Study Center, NIHB, E-02, 230 South Frontage Road, New Haven

RSVP by February 26th to 203.737.5943 or karen.kolb@yale.edu