

Physical and Mental Health of Refugees: COVID-19 Update

March 18, 2021, 6:00 - 7:30pm

To register for this free, virtual conference, please visit:
https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_K6zUWaSYQKOg2NxxLdJK9g

Conference Faculty

(complete list of speaker affiliations on website)

Jennifer Klem, BA

Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services

Maya Prabhu MD, LLB

YSM Department of Psychiatry

Julia Rosenberg, MD

YSM Department of Pediatrics

Brita Roy MD, MPH, MHS

YSM Department of Medicine

Tricia Ryan, PhD

Gaylord Center for Brain Health

Jason L Schwartz, PhD

YSPH Department of Health Policy and Management

Learning Objectives

- Describe the current state of refugee resettlement locally and nationally
- Review the challenges faced by refugees during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Describe programs implemented in schools to assist refugee children during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Discuss equitable COVID-19 vaccine distribution in Connecticut and access to refugees

Target Audience

Connecticut clinicians and clinicians-in-training, who are interested in learning about the specific mental and physical health needs of refugees

Registration

All participants must pre-register to receive the Zoom link, however attendance is free of charge

For more details about the conference, please visit: <https://medicine.yale.edu/psychiatry/refugee/>