NEEDS ASSESSMENT

Health Equity Rounds is a longitudinal, case-based conference series and curriculum, built on the belief that medical education has the power to improve health equity. Using a COVID-19 as a jumping off point, this talk will explore racial inequities and teach anti-racism strategies.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

At the end of this activity, participants will be able to:

1. Attendees will be aware of racial inequities in both infection rates and disease burden of COVID-19 in children.
2. Attendees will be introduced to a department-wide anti-racism curriculum.
3. Attendees will be introduced to a development framework for anti-racism

DESIGNATION STATEMENT

The Yale School of Medicine designates this live activity for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
