

The Forget-Me-Not Family Ensemble in the Smilow Cancer Hospital Lobby

Date
August 28, 2013

Time
3:00 – 3:30 pm

The Forget-Me-Not Family Ensemble

The Forget-Me-Not Family Ensemble brings the gift of children's music to the lives of the elderly with memory disorders in our neighborhood. The ensemble consists of Noah, 10 year old, and Rebecca, 7 years old, and their parents, Christine and Ben. Dr. Hochang Benjamin Lee (Ben), is the Director of Psychological Medicine Service, Yale New Haven Hospital and Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Yale University School of Medicine.

The ensemble has performed regularly in various assisted living facilities and rehabilitation centers in Maryland and Connecticut since 2011.

Program

Salut d'Amour, Op 12 Noah and Christine	E. Elgar
Infant Paganini Rebecca and Christine	E. Mollenhauer
Prelude in C Major "Harp" Op 12/7 Noah, piano solo	S. Prokofiev
Tomorrow from "Annie" Rebecca, voice solo	S. Strouse
Concerto No. 2 in G Major Noah and Christine	J. Haydn
This is my Father's world Noah, Rebecca, and Christine	F. Sheppard

Everyone is welcome.

SMILOW CANCER HOSPITAL
AT YALE-NEW HAVEN