ANNUAL FALL SYMPOSIUM

DOWNS INTERNATIONAL HEALTH STUDENT TRAVEL FELLOWSHIP

October 25th, 2018 3-5pm
Donald J. Cohen Auditorium
NIHB E Floor, 230 South Frontage Road

3:00-3:45pm   Food and Poster Presentations
3:45-4:00pm   Opening Remarks and Welcome Address
4:00-4:30pm   Oral Presentations

Daniel Hodson, Yale School of Medicine
Exploring Plasmodium Malariae Infection Among Symptomatic Patients Presenting to the Emergency Department in an Urban Hospital in Douala, Cameroon
Faculty Advisor: Sunil Parikh, MD, MPH

Rayne Kim, Yale School of Public Health
Assessing the Mental and Physical needs of Urban Asylum Seekers in Malaysia
Faculty Advisor: Kaveh Khoshnood, PhD, MPH

Natalie Olson, Yale School of Public Health
Epidemiology of Asymptomatic Malaria Among School-Aged Children in Kumasi, Ghana
Faculty Advisor: Michael Cappello, MD

Sophie To, Yale School of Public Health
Body Size Perceptions and Weight-Related Attitudes Among Samoan Adults
Faculty Advisor: Nicola Hawley, PhD

4:30-5:00 Poster Presentations

Further info: katie.doucet@yale.edu
The Wilbur Downs International Health Student Travel Fellowship Program is supported by an endowment in honor of Wilbur G. Downs, MD, MPH. The Fellowship is carried out under the auspices of the Wilbur Downs Fellowship Committee and Yale School of Public Health.