

The Program For Humanities In Medicine

The Howard Spiro Lecture Series

would like to invite you to hear a lecture to be given by

Omar Sultan Haque, MD, MTS

Co-Director of the UNESCO Chair in Bioethics

Instructor in Psychiatry and Law

Harvard Medical School

The lecture is entitled:

DEHUMANIZATION IN MEDICINE: CAUSES AND CURES.

Dehumanization is endemic in medical practice. Why?

What can be done? Is it sometimes functional? What should be done?

Combining descriptive and normative reflection, this talk will explain the major social psychological causes of dehumanization in medical settings, and potential cures.
